About us

Cloud | Maps | Business apps

Amristar is a team of software engineers that help organisations develop IT strategy, architect effective technology systems and build high quality business applications.

We write software, most often web applications, with specialities in enterprise workflow systems, mapping & geospatial, digital integration and cloud services.

As a Microsoft Gold Partner, we have assisted clients in their digital transformation journey, modernising their application stack, embracing cloud technologies and providing support for their mission critical applications.

We are also geospatial specialists and have used our Mapworks product to provide clients with a versatile, high-performance, high-fidelity map integration and design studio.
